The East Coast Shellfish Growers Association is the voice of the shellfish farming community on the East and Gulf Coast. The East Coast industry consists of more than 2,000 small farms from Maine to Florida that collectively produce over $190 million each year in sustainably farmed shellfish.

We publish four, 20-page newsletter editions a year, available to everyone as downloadable pdf files dating back to 2016 on our website. In 2025 the newsletter portal page had nearly 2,000 page views, and more than 1,000 active users. Online newsletters contain active links for websites, emails and social media references in all ads and news copy.

Equipment suppliers/service providers ($250 membership fee) are entitled to a free business-card-sized ad in all four newsletters, as well as a listing on our Members webpage. Card print dimensions are: 2.96 in. wide x 1.8 in. high. The online listing contains logos and contact information for each member, with active links to websites and emails.
